them seem requisite for the better leavying and bringing in the several sums of money herein formerly mentioned as to them shall be thought fit and necessary, so as the allowances so to be made by the said Commissioners, do not exceed the sum of Twelve pence in the pound, which said Twelve pence in the pound is to be allowed by the said Treasurer unto the several High Collectors upon their respective accounts.

Provided always, that this Ordinance, or any thing therein contained, in any wise extend not to charge the Probst, Fellows and Schollers of the foundation of the Colledge of the Holy Trinity near Dublin, nor to any Hospital men, or people living upon Alms.

And whereas it hath been declared to this General Convention, that the insolvencies and deficiencies of the two former Polls hath principally risen from, and been occasioned by the removeal of many of the Under-tenants, and meaner sort of people out of the Towns and Villages wherein they did inhabite at the time of making up the Estreats, or Lists of the Inhabitants of such Townes and Villages, and that purposely to avoid the Payments of the said Pole-monies, so that the Collectors of the severall Counties and Barrenies could neither finde them, or their Distresses, to make Payment of the Summe or Summes charged on them in the said Estreats, to the great disservice of his Majestie, and disappointment of the Expectations of this Generall Convention: And forasmuch as the same could not happen without the Connivance of the Land-Lord, Farmer, or Head-Tenant of such Towne or Village. Be it therefore ordained by the authority aforesaid, that where any person or persons inhabiting in any of the Townes and Villages of this Kingdome at the time of Laying in of this present Poll, shall go about to remove him or themselves, out of such Towne or Village as aforesaid, That then it shall and may be lawfull for such Land-Lord, Farmer, or Head-Tenant, residing in any such Towne or Village to distraine, and he is hereby Ordered to distraine on the Goods or Chattels of such person or persons to double the value of the Pole-money, rated on them by this present Ordinance, and the same to deliver to the Collector of that Barrony, who is to dispose of the same, as by this present Ordinance he is appointed to dispose of other Distresses. And where any Land-Lord, Farmer, or Head-Tenant of any of the said Townes and Villages, shall neglect or faile to distraine as aforesaid, That then the Collector nominated and appointed for that Barrony, shall demand the Summe or Summes rated on such person or persons so departed from such Land-Lord, Farmor or Head-Tenant, and upon non Payment, to distraine on the Goods or Chattels of such Land-Lord, Farmor or Head-Tenant, and the same to dispose of, as by vertue and Authority of this Ordinance in other cases of Distresse he is authorized and appointed.

Provided alwayes, and it is hereby Ordained, That Sir William Vsher Knight, and Thomas Boyd Merchant, Members of this Convention, shall be, and are hereby impowrd by this Generall Convention, from time to time to take an Account of what money is, or shall be raised by vertue of the second Ordinance of this Convention for Pole-money, towards Satisfaction of the said Money due by Statute Staple to Alderman Daniell Bellingham from severall Members of this Convention, and of what part thereof, the said Money so raised, and to be raised, shall fall short to satisfie. And the high Collectors of the severall Counties in the Province of Leinster, are hereby required within the times above limited, to pay the severall Summes of Money that shall be raised by vertue of this Ordinance in the severall Counties in the said Province of Leinster, to the said Sir William Vsher and Thomas Boyd, who out of the said Monies are to satisfie and pay to the said Alderman Bellingham, what shall remaine due unto him upon the said Statute Staple, by the Deficiency of the money raised, or to be raised by the said second Ordinance for Pole-money. And after Satisfaction of the said Money so due by the said Statute Staple, and the Interest thereof, the said Sir William Vsher and Thomas Boyd are hereby required to pay the residue of the said Money, that shall be so by them received to his Majesties Vice-Treasurer, and Treasurer at Warre, for his Majesties use. And the said Sir William Vsher and Thomas Boyd, are to make such allowances out of the said moneys to be by them received as by the said Vice-Treasurer, is to be made out of the residue of the moneys to be paid unto him by virtue of this Ordinance.

And be it further ordained by the authority aforesaid, That these persons under written and no other, be, and are nominated and appointed to be Commissioners for putting in execution this Ordinance within the severall Counties, Cities, and Burroughs of this Realm of Ireland, That is to say,
